MEMORANDUM FOR LIDB Users

SUBJECT: Version 6.0 of LIDB

1. The USAMC Logistics Support Activity (LOGSA) is pleased to announce Version 6.0 of the Logistics Integrated Data Base (LIDB) is now available. The software to install this logistics information product is provided with this mailing.
2. Version 6.0 replaces all other versions of LIDB. It is important that you install this CD as soon as possible. The Version 6.0 disk is not classified, but may be used to install the software on both classified and unclassified PCs. Enclosed is important information regarding LIDB and instructions to assist during the installation; please be sure to read the instructions carefully before attempting the install. If you are installing this software on a Windows 2000 or Windows XP machine you must follow the instructions in the Windows 2000 and Windows XP installation addendum after you have completed the install from the CD. Should you have difficulty, your local system administrator can give you assistance.
3. For additional information or advice, our LIDB point of contact is the LOGSA Helpdesk, Commercial (256) 955-7716/DSN 645-7716 or e-mail helpdesk@logsa.redstone.army.mil.
4. USAMC LOGSA--Supporting Warfighters Globally.
