

SINGGARS...

I THINK WE HAVE TOO MANY SINGGARS RADIOS!

WHAT CAN WE DO WITH ALL OF THESE?

I BELIEVE WE NEED TO CONTACT OUR MACOM FOR REDISTRIBUTION INSTRUCTIONS.

How to Handle Excess Radio Assets

Dear Editor,

It is critical that Active Army units turn in excess SINGGARS radios correctly. To do this, the unit must contact its major command (MACOM) for repair and redistribution instructions. The MACOM will work with the PM FBCB2 that procures and fields tactical voice and data radios and radio systems and with the Army G-8 team that matches available resources to the greatest need.

This includes excess associated equipment like the AM-7238 power amplifier and the AM-7239 vehicular amplifier adapter (VAA).

Units MUST NOT turn in radios and associated equipment to the wholesale supply system. This is happening too often and fails to get the radios into the hands of those that need them the most.

If you are a National Guard unit with excess to turn in, call (703) 607-5670. If you are an Army Reserve unit with excess to turn in, call (404) 464-8636.
